Focus on Energy and RMM Solutions Join Forces to Host Green IT Seminar to Help Wisconsin Businesses Save Money and Energy

Organizations can stretch IT budgets and enhance energy efficiencies through green IT technology such as virtualization and cash incentives from Focus on Energy.

Wausau, WI – 11-17-2009 – Focus on Energy and RMM Solutions, a leader in technology solutions, will host a green IT seminar on Thursday, December 3. The seminar will provide insight into how businesses can receive grants by implementing green IT technology like virtualization.

Focus on Energy can help Wisconsin businesses pay for IT technology through grants for energy-saving technology projects. Wisconsin customers who have engaged Focus on Energy in the past now claim nearly $239 million dollars in annual energy costs.

“As energy prices rise, more and more Wisconsin businesses are looking for ways to curb runaway energy consumption in data centers and information technology departments. That’s why Focus on Energy has joined forces with RMM Solutions to host a Green IT summit that provides insight on how businesses can help save energy and money through Green IT initiatives”, said Geoff Overland, Program Manager for Green IT Projects, Focus on Energy.

“Now more than ever ‘Green IT’ energy efficiency is a smart investment. Focus on Energy can provide grants and financial incentives to help stretch IT budgets. RMM can help by providing in-depth expertise in helping businesses implement a green IT infrastructure and data processing equipment that saves money and energy while improving budget, productivity and a businesses’ bottom line,” said Rimon Moses, CEO for RMM Solutions.

Focus on Energy and RMM’s Green IT Seminar will take place at the following location:

December 3 Wausau, WI            Jefferson Street Inn, Wausau

A complete description of the seminar and registration information is available at www.rmmsolutions.com.
